Many prime time weekday slots are available. These dates are generally less crowded and offer substantial savings over the weekend rates.

Having 27 holes gives Terry Hills a great deal of flexibility in terms of accommodating your group. We do a number of 27 hole shot-gun tournaments including the Jim Kelly Celebrity Classic. If your group is turning people away, has a waiting list, or suffering through a 6 hour round because the 18 hole facility can't accommodate you, then you need to give us a call. We are player and group friendly and would love to assist you.

We encourage you to book your 2022 outing as soon as possible to ensure the date and time of your choice.

The History of Terry Hills

In 1930 Parker Terry opened Terry Hills, one of the area's first 9-hole golf courses. The Rotondo family acquired Terry Hills in 1972 and over the years they have continually improved the course, turning what was once farmland into a locally renowned 27-hole championship golf course. You will find country club conditions and outstanding, friendly service that will keep you coming back. The course has many possibilities of play with three nine hole courses described here:

The East Course (holes 1-9) is the oldest of the three courses and was built by founder Parker Terry in 1930. Measuring just over 3,000 yards, its small greens, hilly terrain, and mature trees provide plenty of challenge to golfers of all abilities. The East Course is known for its difficult par fives, with holes 4, 6, and 9 all measuring over 500 yards each.

The North Course (holes 10-18) measures in at over 3,200 yards. Terry Hills' signature hole is the 14th, a short par three that plays to an island green that can be trickier than it looks. The North Course also features a favorite finishing hole in the 18th, which is a dogleg that plays through the woods up to an elevated green.

The South Course (holes 19-27) measures just over 3,100 yards and features classic par 5's like #20, which is a 536 yard par 5 that is guarded by a pond at the front of the green. Demanding par 4's such as #23, the uphill "cemetery hole" and the looming 26th make this 9 a great test.

Our beautiful 8,000 square foot clubhouse offers panoramic views of the golf course with floor to ceiling windows and a gorgeous patio that overlooks the 1st tee. The perfect place for great food and drink, corporate event or a picturesque dream wedding. Call 585-343-0642 x-5 for more information.
